Cross Country Speeds to State

by Victoria Sananikone, Reporter

The CPHS girls cross country team finished off their Regional meet in second place, qualifying for state, which took place on Nov. 12. A member of the boys team, senior Tyler Grendel qualified for state as well, as an individual. He competed with the girls team who consisted of Sarah Pia, Candy Conde de Frankenberg, Brea Givens...(cont. at cphswolfpack.org)

Top 10 Reasons We Love CPF B

by The Wolfpack Staff, Editorial

10. Winning. It sure is nice to leave the last 28 of 29 games with a win!
9. Drumline. The whole stadium is up and on their feet, yelling and singing along to the drumline's classic: "Metal Shop."
8. The respect the football players have for their country and community is shown with their hands on their hearts and their eyes locked on the American flag during the National Anthem.
7. Students holding their breath waiting for a Timberwolf to crash through one of the cheerleader's creative bust outs and stampede onto the field with the hammer.
6. The unintentional new best friend we make when CP makes a touchdown....(cont. at cphswolfpack.org)
