Undefeated CPFB wins state

by Emilee Guernsey

Winning 16 consecutive games, CPFB finished off the season with an undefeated record and a state championship title. On Dec. 19 the T-Wolves beat Frisco Lonestar 22-6 in NRG Stadium in Houston, taking the 5A-II title.

CP was the first high school in UIL history to win both band and football state championships in the same year. Head football coach Carl Abseck shared how great of a feeling it was to be the first to break that record.

“It represents our school and our community,” Abseck said. “It gives us a lot of recognition...(cont. at cphswolfpack.org)

Richter earns athlete of the week

by Collyn Burke

From having a perfect season, to taking state and winning Aspire athlete of the week, there's not much Cedar Park's Will Richter hasn't done. Working hard on and off the field, Richter has proven what it really means to be a CPHS Timberwolf.

“When I'm out on the field I just feel like I'm a kid at recess again,” Richter said...(cont. at cphswolfpack.org)

Loera named soph. of year

by Kerry Madden

Sophomore year: the routines of high school have become second nature, you know the west wing from the east wing and you've begun the second chapter of your high school years. With the prospects of a new year ahead of them, the sophomores of the school dove into their second year of high school. One sophomore in particular has been taking the opportunities presented to her to their fullest extent. Interest sparked by an announcement on the Wolfcast, Hannah Loera applied to the sophomore of the year...(cont. at cphswolfpack.org)
