

School News

Cool classes

Savannah Burchfiel

With the spring semester underway, returning students will be filling out fall schedules soon. Counselor Thomas Kahlich gave students the inside scoop on some out of the ordinary, exciting classes for students to fill their schedules with to add some spice to the otherwise monotonous required courses. Kahlich recommends looking at some of the classes in the B-building, a hotspot for courses including Culinary, Hotel Management and Sports Entertainment and Marketing...

Spring break

Bianca Jimenez

The countdown to spring has officially begun, leaving the haunting question, "What am I doing for spring break?" ... To help make spring break memorable, here is a list of fun things to do around Austin and Cedar Park. If you are looking to be outdoors, try going to Zilker Park. At Zilker Park you can enjoy the downtown Austin scenery without feeling like you're actually downtown because of the nature surrounding it...

Jokes and Riddles

Why is the track team so talkative?
Because they're always discuss-ing!

What has 18 legs and catches flies?
A baseball team!

What lights up a stadium?
A soccer match!

I'm where yesterday follows today, and tomorrow's in the middle. What am I?

*Answer will be revealed next month*

Did you know?

You can find the rest of these stories, pictures and more online at www.cphswolfpack.org

Add "Journalism Advanced: Newspaper" to your schedule to become a part of the staff that brings you the semester newspaper and monthly Toilet Times.

The online Wolfpack has undergone a makeover! With a new mobile-friendly layout, stories updated daily and new scrolling features, the site provides all you need to stay updated with school news and happenings on the go.

