Spring Show captures audiences

by Emilee Guernsey

The narrator's voice boomed over the audience, and the lights began to shine onto the stage. As the curtains opened, the Celebrities stood in their gleaming uniforms and performed the opening dance, "Diamonds," for the annual Spring Show.

The theme this year was "Dreams," and the show was a dream in itself. With risky dance moves to heart-touching performances, the show made me feel as if I was dreaming, and I didn't want to wake up....(cont. at cphswolfpack.org)

Baseball hits into Playoffs

by Anjali Sundaram

The ball weighed heavily in the player's hand as he made his way to the field. The sun beat down on him, as the crowd fell into a dull roar. He lined up his bat, waiting as the other team's pitcher reared his arm back, getting ready to throw. Crack! The ball flew through the stadium and into the crowd: one, two, three, home run. He had done it.

This year CP's baseball team will be making their way into the playoffs. Playing right field, junior Hayden Craig explains the feelings the team had when they found out that they were....(cont. at cphswolfpack.org)

Spanish Club places at PASF

by Emilee Guernsey

The Spanish Club ventured down to San Antonio on March 5 to compete in a multitude of competitions in the Pan American Student Forum (PASF). Three different students placed in the competitions held.

Junior Anjali Sundaram placed first place in TAMOAS, Texas Area Model Organization of American States, a student forum that is designed to replicate the U.N., except it is only focused....(cont. at cphswolfpack.org)
