Celebs dance on a dream

by Janet Nava

The lights will shine as sparkly uniforms glint on stage and arms fly to the air, raising pomps. The PAC will echo the sounds of loud music and dancing feet while kicking legs point to the sky. The stage will be a collective movement of bright colors. iDance is bringing all of the LISD dance teams together once again to show off their new dances and performances on Oct. 7-8 at Leander High School.

"It's really a chance for all of the schools to come together and dance," junior Roxy Mota said... (cont. at cphswolfpack.org)

ACL hits town on Oct. 2

by Collyn Burke

Your heart beats, your blood pumps. You and 75,000 of your closest friends jump as the crescendo hits and the bass drops. The famed Austin City Limits is rolling back into town Oct. 2-4 and 9-11 and people have been preparing since the line up dropped last spring... Reasons to care about the PSAT

by Meital Abulam

Many people think that taking the PSAT during school is unnecessary and, quite frankly, dumb. But, there is a purpose. The reason people may think this is because during your four years of high school you will take the PSAT a total of three times.

Your freshman year, the point of this is to get a feel of what both the PSAT and the SAT are like. As a sophomore, the results of your scores will determine whether or not you are eligible for the PSAT Team, which is a semester class that helps prepare students for the SAT. The third and final time you'll take the PSAT will be your junior year, and that is the most important... (cont. at cphswolfpack.org)
